Overseas Deployment Training

This UPDATE printing publishes a revision that is effective 21 November 1988. Because the structure of the entire revised text has been reorganized, no attempt has been made to highlight changes from the earlier regulation dated 1 October 1983.

By Order of the Secretary of the Army:

CARL E. VUONO
General, United States Army
Chief of Staff

Official:

MILTON H. HAMILTON
Administrative Assistant to the Secretary of the Army

Summary. This regulation on training of continental United States (CONUS)-based units (including Hawaii and Alaska, U.S. territories and possessions) with commands, host nation, CONUS-based corps, and Third U.S. Army training outside the continental United States (OCONUS) and U.S. territories and possessions has been revised. This revision gives the OCONUS commands, CONUS-based corps, and Third U.S. Army responsibility for the identification of in-country support costs. It includes training opportunities in geographic areas not supported by CAPSTONE.

Applicability. This regulation applies to the Active Army, the Army National Guard (ARNG), and the U.S. Army Reserve (USAR). It applies to all OCONUS training deployments by CONUS-based units except those specifically exempted in paragraph 3–1c.

Impact on New Manning System. This regulation does not contain information that affects the New Manning System.

Internal control systems. This regulation is subject to the requirements of AR 11–2. It contains internal control provisions but does not contain checklists for conducting internal control reviews. These checklists are being developed and will be published at a later date.

Supplementation. Supplementation of this regulation and establishment of command or local forms are prohibited without prior approval from HQDA (DAMO–TRO), WASH DC 20310–0450.

Interim changes. Interim changes to this regulation are not official unless they are authenticated by the Administrative Assistant to the Secretary of the Army. Users will destroy interim changes on their expiration dates unless sooner superseded or rescinded.

Suggested improvements. The proponent agency of this regulation is the Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Operations and Plans. Users are invited to send comments and suggested improvements on DA Form 2028 (Recommended Changes to Publications and Blank Forms) directly to HQDA (DAMO–TRO), WASH DC 20310–0450.

Distribution. Active Army, ARNG, and USAR, B.

Chapter 1
Introduction

1–1. Purpose

This regulation prescribes policy, responsibilities, and selection procedures for training continental United States (CONUS)-based units (including Hawaii, Alaska, and U.S. territories and possessions) with commands, host nations, CONUS-based corps, and Third U.S. Army training outside the continental United States (OCONUS) and U.S. territories and possessions.

1–2. References

Required and related publications and referenced forms are listed in appendix A.

1–3. Explanation of abbreviations and terms

Abbreviations and special terms used in this regulation are explained in the glossary.

*This regulation supersedes AR 350–9, 1 October 1983.

1–4. Overseas deployment training (ODT) objectives

ODT is designed to—

a. Strengthen CAPSTONE relationships.

b. Provide units projected for deployment in support of Joint Chiefs of Staff (JCS)-approved operation plans the opportunity to conduct wartime mission-oriented training and planning in an overseas location.

c. Provide the CONUS-based units with the opportunity to conduct mobilization, deployment, reception, execution of training, and redeployment activities at OCONUS locations.

Chapter 2
Responsibilities

2–1. Deputy Chief of Staff for Operations and Plans (DCSOPS)

The DCSOPS will—

a. Have overall responsibility for ODT.

b. Authorize exceptions to policy when funding and/or when major Army command (MACOM) or OCONUS requirements conflict.

c. Monitor OCONUS training deployments (less JCS-directed and JCS-coordinated exercises) to sensitive areas. Areas requiring DCSOPS approval for training deployments will be announced by message to Army MACOMs as required.

d. Revoke movement directives when, because of national policy or other significant reasons, it would not be appropriate to send units to train in an overseas location.

e. Monitor the ODT program.

2–2. Commanding General, U.S. Forces Command (CG, FORSCOM)

The Commanding General, FORSCOM will—

a. Approve/manage the ODT program and publish implementing instructions.

b. Coordinate with OCONUS commands, CONUS-based corps, and Third U.S. Army to identify training opportunities.

c. Coordinate with the U.S. Army Reserve (USAR) peacetime chain of command and the National Guard Bureau (NGB) to approve participation based on the planning criteria in chapter 3.

d. Develop and publish a 5-Year Plan annually.

e. Ensure that sufficient funds, to include man-day spaces for the USAR ODT participation, are programmed to support the scheduled training.

f. Host a workshop to develop the succeeding edition of the 5-Year Plan not later than 31 January each year.

g. Predict international passenger requirements to the Commander, Military Traffic Management Command (MTMC), annually in accordance with AR 55–133 through publication of the 5-Year Plan.

h. Monitor transportation support to and from overseas locations. Transportation requests for nontactical movements will be sent to the Commander, MTMC, ATTN; PTO–T, WASH DC 20315–2505, on DD Form 1287 (Request for Commercial Transportation (Annual Active Duty Training)) at least 90 days before the movement date.

i. Provide public affairs support and guidance to Active Component and USAR units in accordance with AR 360–5.

j. Coordinate exceptions to policy with the priority CAPSTONE gaining command for those units that are scheduled for other OCONUS training opportunities.

k. Submit an evaluation report of the previous fiscal year plan to HQDA (DAMO–TRO), WASH DC 20310–0450, by 1 December each year. This reporting requirement is assigned RCS CSGPO–438.

l. Deploy units/cells to JCS-directed/coordinated OCONUS exercises in accordance with the provisions of AR 350–28.

2–3. Chief, National Guard Bureau (CNGB)

The CNGB will—

a. Identify, with the Commander, U.S. Forces Command, the Army National Guard (ARNG) units that will participate in overseas deployment training.

b. Coordinate with the respective State adjutants general for ordering ARNG units to active duty for training (ADT) under section 672, title 10, United States Code.

c. Provide the State adjutants general the funding required to plan and conduct ODT training.

d. Monitor State transportation requests to MTMC.

e. Provide public affairs support and guidance in accordance with AR 360–5.

f. Inform the OCONUS command(s) and Third U.S. Army, through HQ FORSCOM, annually, of information required and suspense date for submitting in-country support costs budget requests.

g. Submit by 1 November each year, a narrative after-action report in information paper format to Cdr, FORSCOM, ATTN: FCJ3–TRU, Fort McPherson, GA 30330–6000. This reporting requirement is assigned RCS CSGPO–438. It will cover, at a minimum, the following areas:

(1) Program management/level of participation.

(2) Funding.

(3) Unit selection.

(4) Performance and evaluation of training.

(5) Coordination conferences.

(6) Transportation.

(7) Any other areas bearing on the overall effectiveness of the program.

2–4. Chief, Army Reserve (CAR)

The CAR will—

a. Coordinate with CG, FORSCOM, the USAR units that will participate in ODT.

b. Provide appropriate funding for USAR units that are required to plan and conduct overseas training.

c. Inform the OCONUS command(s) and Third U.S Army, through FORSCOM, annually, of information required and suspense date for submitting in-country support costs budget requests.

d. Submit by 1 November each year, a narrative after-action report to CDR, FORSCOM, ATTN: FCJ3–TRU, Fort McPherson, GA 30330–6000. This reporting requirement is assigned RCS CSGPO–438. This report will cover, at a minimum, the areas listed in paragraph 2–3*g*.

2–5. Commanders of OCONUS commands, CONUS-based corps, and Third U.S. Army

These commanders will—

a. Provide training opportunities for units in OCONUS unilateral, joint, and combined command post exercises (CPXs); field training exercises (FTXs); deployments for training (DFTs); and mission training.

b. Establish a single point of contact for ODT coordination.

c. Identify training opportunities for the second succeeding fiscal year of the 5-Year Plan (by August 1 each year) to include units troop listed in JCS exercises (does not apply to CONUS-based corps).

d. Annually update the outyear projections of the 5-Year Plan.

e. Identify in-country support costs, to include coordination and scheduling conferences, to NGB and Office of the Chief, Army Reserve (OCAR).

f. Submit requested changes, with complete justification to the CDR, FORSCOM, ATTN: FCJ3–TRU (for Reserve Component (RC) units) and FCJ3–TA (for Active Component (AC) units), Fort McPherson, GA 30330–6000, not less than 90 days before scheduled unit participation. Exceptions will be addressed on a case-by-case basis and must be approved by a general officer in the requesting unit's chain of command. For units training in areas classified as sensitive per paragraph 2–1(c), request should be sent to Headquarters, Department of the Army (HQDA) (DAMO–ODO/TRO) with a copy furnished CDR, FORSCOM, ATTN: FCJ3–TRU.

g. Ensure support requirements and training needs are coordinated between the sponsor and participating units.

h. Ensure that the sponsor initiates coordination with the participating unit not later than 60 days after plan approval.

i. Appropriate clearances will be coordinated by the OCONUS command for units participating in ODT and will only be granted for deployments listed on the 5-Year Plan.

j. Provide or coordinate administrative and logistical support to units from the time of arrival to the time of departure.

k. Evaluate the performance of RC units during OCONUS training and forward the completed FORSCOM evaluation, as appropriate, to the numbered Armies in the continental United States (CONUSA) not later than 30 days after the Annual Training

(AT) period. The FORSCOM evaluation form and procedures are contained in FORSCOM Pam 135–3.

l. Provide a channel for the release of information on training activities (in accordance with AR 360–5).

m. Submit by 1 November each year, a narrative afteraction report to CDR, FORSCOM, ATTN: FCJ3–TRU, Fort McPherson GA 30330–6000. This report will cover, at a minimum, the areas listed in paragraph 2–3*g*.

n. Adhere to suspense dates and reporting requirements identified in table 2–1.

o. Sponsor, at least annually, a coordination conference that allows interface between units scheduled for ODT and their sponsors. Frequency of these conferences should be dictated by volume of participation.

2–6. Commander, Military Traffic Management Command

The Commander, MTMC, will—

a. Arrange round-trip movement of units by commercial or military transportation in accordance with AR 55–6 and AR 55–133.

b. Issue port calls, monitor transportation provided for movements, and assist units if there are delays or disruptions in travel between origins and destinations.

c. Notify FORSCOM, NGB, OCAR, and appropriate overseas commands by telephone if units encounter delays that could disrupt en route connections or postarrival activities.

d. Submit by 1 November each year, a narrative afteraction report to CDR, U.S. Forces Command, ATTN: FCJ3–TRU, Fort McPherson, GA 30330–6000. This report will cover, at a minimum, the areas listed in paragraph 2–3*g*.

2–7. Training deployments to sensitive areas

OCONUS commands/CONUS-based corps will advise HQDA (DAMO–TRO) of training deployments to sensitive areas. Information will include the following:

a. Unit identification code (UIC) and station.

b. Number of personnel deploying.

c. Dates of deployment and redeployment.

d. Specific location of training.

Suspense dates and reporting requirements, RCS CSGPO–438

Dates	Reporting requirements
1 August	—OCONUS commands and CONUS-based corps submit an updated 5-Year Plan (para 2–5*c*)
1 September	—FORSCOM provides draft 5–Year Plan through Worldwide Military Command and Control System (WWMCCS) for staffing.
1 November	—Designated commands and staff agencies submit an afteraction report to CDR, FORSCOM (chap 2).
1 December	—FORSCOM submits evaluation report on previous year's ODT (para 2–2) (RCS CSGPO–438). Comments on draft 5-Year Plan due at FORSCOM.
31 January	—FORSCOM hosts working level conference to coordinate execution or change of program (para 2–2*g*).
1 April	—The 5-Year Plan is approved and published by FORSCOM (para 2–2*e*).
1 May	—Theater clearance is provided by OCONUS commands (para 2–5*i*).

e. Aerial port of debarkation (APOD) or seaport of debarkation (SPOD).

f. Mission with brief description of training.

g. Specific training benefit available at the proposed location that cannot be met by conducting similar training in CONUS or reasons why similar training cannot be conducted in CONUS.

Chapter 3
Policies

3–1. Participation in ODT

a. Members of the ARNG will be ordered to active duty under section 672(b) and (d), title 10, United States Code, for periods of AT or ADT.

b. Public announcements for OCONUS JCS exercise participation will be governed in accordance with AR 360–5.

c. The following types of OCONUS training deployments are not governed by this regulation.

(1) The exchange of small units and personnel between the U.S. Army and armies of allied and friendly nations will be governed by AR 350–11.

(2) Training activities involving the temporary cross-border movement of land forces between CONUS and Canada are governed by AR 525–16.

(3) The U.S. Army Western Command (WESTCOM) Expanded Relations Program (ERP) will be governed by AR 10–49. The ERP area of operations will be the Pacific basin. When Reserve Components are participating under ODT they will be governed by this regulation.

(4) Units training overseas in the Tactical Intelligence and Readiness Training (REDTRAIN) Program will be governed by AR 350–3.

(5) Deployments resulting from directed training associations between the 193d Infantry Brigade (L) and the 53d and 92d Infantry Brigades involving units below company-size training on U.S. installations in Panama will be governed in accordance with AR 11–30.

d. Army participation in exercises directed, coordinated, or approved by JCS will be governed in accordance with AR 350–28 in addition to the provisions of this regulation.

e. Army National Guard personnel participating in the Key Personnel Upgrade Program (KPUP) will be governed by the appropriate NGB pamphlet.

f. OCONUS commands, CONUS-based corps, or Third U.S. Army will not deploy units or personnel participating in ODT to other countries without prior coordination and approval by FORSCOM.

g. Active Component units will be governed by this regulation only when deploying in support of a Reserve Component higher headquarters in the unit's CAPSTONE trace.

3–2. Planning for ODT

a. The ODT Program.

(1) OCONUS commands, CONUS-based corps, and Third U.S. Army will identify training opportunities on a 5-year planning cycle. These opportunities should provide the unit with realistic mission-oriented training or contingency planning in support of an operation plan.

(2) A maximum of 22 days for any one increment and up to 7 days for CAPSTONE planning will be allowed. Exceptions to policy will be approved by DCSOPS, HQDA.

(3) Minimum goals for frequency of ODT will be as follows:

(a) Units with a latest arrival data (LAD) between D and D+30 should be programmed on a 3-year cycle.

(b) Units with a LAD of D+31 should be programmed on a 5-year cycle.

(4) Eligibility for participation in ODT will be as follows:

(a) Identification on a Time-Phased Force Deployment List (TPFDL) supporting a contingency plan of a requesting Commander in Chief (CINC).

(b) CAPSTONE alignment to the requesting CINC.

(c) Assigned CAPSTONE mission priority for planning and training to the requesting CINC.

(d) OCONUS training opportunities outside priority CAPSTONE alignment. Training outside priority CAPSTONE alignment will be—

1. Conducted under the purview of this regulation.

2. Identified by OCONUS MACOM on a 5-Year Plan.

3. Subject to coordination with priority CAPSTONE CINC.

b. Movement of personnel. Personnel participating in ODT will commence and terminate participation at home stations. All personnel will depart from their home stations and return from their OCONUS training site by designated transportation on the dates specified on the 5-Year Plan. Delays en route to or from ODT are not authorized. Personnel participating in ODT area are not authorized to have family members accompany or join them during their assigned tour of duty overseas.

c. Unit observation. Visits by CONUS-based personnel to units training in an overseas area are not authorized. Exceptions to this policy must be approved on a case-by-case basis by the OCONUS command; the CG, FORSCOM, for AC and USAR personnel; and by the CNGB for ARNG personnel.

d. Minimum training requirement. Unit members must have completed 12 weeks of basic or equivalent training to be eligible to participate in ODT.

e. Antiterrorist training. Personnel selected for overseas deployment training will receive training on combating terrorism. This will include briefings on terrorist organizations and operations in areas to which soldiers/units are being deployed, code of conduct guidance, and individual protective measures.

f. Operational security (OPSEC)/Subversion and Espionage Directed Against the U.S. Army and Deliberate Security Violations (SAEDA) training. Personnel scheduled for ODT will be briefed on proper OPSEC procedures and receive an update SAEDA briefing prior to deployment.

Chapter 4
Funding

4–1. Army Component for the unified/specified command

a. The Army Component of the supported unified/specified command will identify in-country support requirements in their command operating budget. In-country support costs for the ARNG will be identified to NGB as Operations and Maintenance, Army National Guard (OMNG). Costs should include those for all units scheduled in the 5-Year Plan, less JCS exercise troop-listed units. (CONUS-based corps will submit requirements to the appropriate Army Component.) Assigned Active Guard/Reserve (AGR) and AC personnel should be included in the identification of host country support costs.

b. The Army Component will fund in-country support requirements with applicable Operations and Maintenance, Army Reserve (OMAR)/OMNG funds through direct contracting, issuance of fund cites or reimbursable orders or DD Form 1610 (Request and Authorization for TDY Travel of DOD Personnel) for in-country support as follows:

(1) Billeting/quarters provided by or contracted by the Army Component. (See para 4–3c.)

(2) Additional food service attendants.

(3) Utilities.

(4) Housekeeping supplies.

(5) Petroleum, oil, and lubricants.

(6) Organizational repair parts for actual replacement other than fair wear and tear.

(7) In-country transportation costs provided by or contracted by the host. (See para 4–3*e*.)

(8) Laundry of organizational clothing.

4–2. Army National Guard

a. The ARNG will fund all in-country costs directly related to ODT from the OMNG appropriation. Pay and allowances will be paid with National Guard Personnel, Army (NGPA) funds allocated to the State concerned.

b. Subsistence costs will be reimbursed as provided by AR 30–1.

c. JCS exercise funds will pay transportation costs for JCS exercise troop-listed unit personnel and transportation costs in accordance with AR 37–27 and AR 350–28.

d. In-country costs associated with troop-listed participation in JCS exercises will be funded from appropriate exercise funds. (See AR 37–27 and AR 350–28.)

e. The NGB will provide OMG funding, through direct allocation to the OCONUS command, to pay for in-country support costs.

4–3. U.S. Army Reserve

a. Costs directly related to this training program for USAR personnel will be financed by the appropriate Reserve Personnel, Army (RPA), and OMAR appropriations.

b. Appropriate MACOM RPA funds will be used for pay and allowances for USAR personnel and for transportation costs from the CONUS home station to the OCONUS training location as specified on the ODT 5-Year Plan. RPA funds will be used for JCS troop-listed USAR units' transportation costs from home stations to the designated aerial ports of embarkation (APOEs) and seaports of embarkation (SPOEs). The JCS exercise funds will bear the transportation costs for USAR troop-listed personnel from APODs or SPODs to the training locations.

c. Army Component host OMAR funds will pay for in-country support costs; that is, transportation costs for in and around training locations for non-JCS troop-listed USAR personnel.

d. In-country support cost for JCS troop-listed USAR personnel will be funded from appropriate exercise funds. (See AR 37–27 and AR 350–28.)

e. OCAR will provide OMAR in-country support dollars on fund authorization documents directly to the Army Component for the supported unified/specified command.

f. Subsistence furnished to USAR members through a dining facility or contract establishment should be charged in accordance with AR 30–1.

4–4. Active Component

Active Army Component units participating in ODT, except those AC personnel assigned to a USAR unit, will be funded in accordance with AR 350–28, appendix E.

Terms

5-Year Plan
A planning tool for budget and management purposes that identifies deploying units for participation in overseas deployment training.

Active duty for training
A tour of duty for training members of the Reserve Components. The tour must be under orders to return to nonactive duty status when the period of ADT is completed.

Annual training
The minimum period of active duty for training or field training that a soldier performs each year to satisfy the annual training requirements associated with his or her Reserve Component assignment. It may be performed during one consecutive period or in increments of 1 or more days depending upon mission requirements.

CAPSTONE
A management program designed to—

a. Improve the readiness of the total force through the alignment of Active Component and Reserve Component units into force packages that enable units to train and plan in peacetime for their wartime missions.

b. Be a roadmap that orients a unit's readiness, mobilization, and deployment program toward the primary objective—the accomplishment of a wartime mission.

c. Provide a guide for force readiness and aid in prioritizing resources.

Cell
Any portion or element of a unit to take part in overseas deployment training under the provisions of this regulation.

In-country support costs
That cost provided by OCONUS command/Third U.S. Army for logistical support of any RC ODT participation, other than those units troop listed for a JCS exercise.

Latest arrival date
The latest date by which a force or any element thereof must arrive at the sea or airport of debarkation and complete unloading.

Other OCONUS training opportunity Mission training opportunity identified by an OCONUS MACOM that is not within the established priorities for planning and training under the purview of the Army CAPSTONE Program (vols I through V).

Pacific basin
That area of routine influence in the U.S. PACOM AOR, excluding those foreign countries in which a U.S. Army command is established.

Time-phased Force Deployment Data
The computer-supported data base portion of an operation plan. It contains time-phased force data, nonunit-related cargo and personnel data, and transportation data for the operation plan.

Time-Phased Force Deployment List
A listing that identifies type units to support a particular operation plan and provide data concerning their routing from origin to destination.
